

Andrew J. McCarthy believes that Guantanamo should be closed. In Andrew's view

40.3 of the fights ended with at least one injured fighter.

Fighting is a thing that will always be around.

I don't agree with Reilly, if boxing can be considered a sport, then why not MMA.

If MMA is legal than we might as well define our society as violent.

The referees call more fouls than in boxing, and they don't fight every week.

Andrew J. McCarthy believes that Guantanamo should be closed. In Andrew's view

Andrew J. McCarthy believes that Guantanamo should be closed. In McCarthy's view 40.3 percent of the fights ended with at least one injured fighter.

At least one fighter is injured in 40.3 percent of the fights.

Fighting is a thing that will always be around.

Fighting will always be around.

I don't agree with Reilly, if boxing can be considered a sport, then why not MMA.

Personal opinion not appropriate in a summary.

If MMA is legal then we might as well define our society as violent.

The referees call more fouls than in boxing, and they don't fight every week.

The referees call more fouls than in boxing, and the fighters don't fight every week.